

ARCHIPELAGO

Fredrikson Stallard,

A series of three mirrors with jagged frames that remind one of the irregular outlines of an island - this gave rise to archipelago. Perfect for any room in the home. These mirrors can be used on their own or to form a harmonious composition, in order to highlight their expressive impact.

Cnc cut, bevelling, painted steel plate and non-crush film. Decorative items in steel, with a gold coloured galvanised finish.
