

ATOLLO

ATOLLO is a family of coffee tables characterised by an exposed slim, delicate metal rod structure, available in matt or brass-plated painted metal. Styled with either a wooden or glass-ceramic top. Available in three heights, from a low coffee table up to a standard coffee table, they boast a perfectly symmetrical base and top in both a round and an elliptical design.

Thanks to their minimalist styling and proportions, they combine easily with the entire Calligaris range, fitting perfectly into your living room.

Choose the ATOLLO that's perfect for you.
