

Bearded Leopard Decorative Pillow

MOOOI

The Bearded Leopard decorative pillow is part of Mooodi's Extinct Animals bedding collection. This tactile decorative pillow was inspired by the fur of the Bearded Leopard. The light yellow to deep gold colours, different structures, and the flock and foil print will stimulate your senses. The pillow's soft front feels like smooth suede while the back is made from quilted cotton velvet. The combination of the different materials and a zip with the Mooodi logo as a beautiful detail gives the pillow a luxurious feeling. Insert sold separately.

Detailing

The structural flock and foil print adds another layer of softness and sophistication.
