

Embroidered Blooming Seadragon Decorative Pillow

MOOOI

The Embroidered Blooming Seadragon decorative pillow is part of Mooodi's Extinct Animals bedding collection. The design is inspired by the mysterious Blooming Seadragon; an Extinct Animal that developed spectacular leaf-like appendages coloured coral, brown, and green as a clever form of camouflage. The front shows the beautiful embroidered Blooming Seadragon, and this, in combination with the soft colours gives the pillow a lush and magical feeling. The back of the pillow is adorned with a dot pattern in flock print.

Detailing

The decorative pillow is made from 100% high quality raw silk. The quilted and embroidered designs add a sophisticated touch.
