The inspiration
behind the project

Wellbe

The inspiration for the Wellbe project was born from a meeting in Paris between Pasquale Natuzzi and Dr. Charles Bark, a PhD researcher in AI and Health, and a pioneer in preventive longevity technology for the home. An enveloping experience of comfort for the benefit of physical and mental well-being. Innovative, mechanically driven triple power motion mechanisms regulate the movement of the backrest, headrest and footrest for an optimal sitting posture that allows the whole body to rest.

Comfortness is the Natuzzi philosophy that harmonizes mind, body, and soul, generating deep well-being for the individual.

Design by Natuzzi Design Center

At Natuzzi's headquarters in Puglia, the Design Center's mission is to harmonize design and functionality, aiming to generate well-being and comfort.

Moodboard blue

To ensure harmony in the projects, the Natuzzi Style Center carefully selects materials and coverings, creating a dialogue between them. In this case, Le Mans leather in Cacao has been paired with Botteghe fabric in Avion, along with Rizzoli fabric in Dove. The harmonization of these coverings with woods and marbles will result in a moodboard that defines the final total look of the project. Each collection model offers multiple moodboards to adapt to various market geographies.
